Should I choose an advisory service? Should I choose both types of services? Why or why not?</li> <li>✓ How will you choose investments to recommend to me?</li> <li>✓ What is your relevant experience, including our licenses, education, and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?</li> </ul>
Item 3A: What fees will I pay?	Consultiva typically charges advisory fees based on a percentage over the assets under management for the client (i.e., the total value of securities, variable annuities, money market funds, margin and cash) and are generally billed in advance on a quarterly basis as set out in the agreement between the client and Consultiva, unless otherwise agreed. Advisory fees vary according to the amount of the assets under management and type of services; the greater your assets under our management, your advisory percentage fee will decrease. The investment advisory fees are negotiable, but typically advisory fee ranges between 0.80% and 2%. This fee is inclusive of our discretionary services. Consultiva may also charge fixed or hourly fees that are negotiated, depending upon the scope of the client’s needs or mandate. Other Fees and Costs In addition to fees paid to Consultiva described above, other fees the retail investor will also incur directly or indirectly can include brokerage fees, confirmation fees, account maintenance fees, inactivity fees. Some investments (e.g., mutual funds and exchange-traded funds) impose additional fees, such as transactional fees and product level fees, that reduce the value of your investment over time.

Item 3B: What are your legal obligations to me when providing recommendations as my investment adviser? How else does the firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?	When we act as your investment adviser, we must act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours. At the same time, the way we make money creates some conflicts with your interest. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the investment advice provided to you. Here are some examples to help you understand what this means. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Because the advisory fees are charged based on a percentage over the assets under management the firm may therefore have an incentive to encourage its clients to increase the assets in his or her account. Consultiva has procedures in place to address this potential conflict of interest.</li> <li>2. Certain investment advisor representatives of Consultiva are also licensed insurance agents. As insurance agents they may recommend the purchase of certain insurance products to Consultiva investment advisory clients. The compensation received from the sale of insurance products potentially presents a conflict of interest, since it theoretically creates an incentive for these persons and Consultiva to recommend such insurance contracts for additional compensation. Consultiva also has a check and balance process to address these potential conflicts.</li> </ol> We render only disinterested and impartial advice to clients, and we are responsible for recommending investments based on your financial profile and objectives. For additional information about potential conflicts of interest, please see our Regulation Best Interest Comprehensive Disclosure document available upon your request at compliance@savileco.com. Conversation Starters - Questions you may wish to ask your financial professional: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>✓ How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?</li> </ul>
Item 3C: How do your financial professionals make money?	Consultiva and our Investment Advisor Representatives benefit from the advisory services we provide to you because of the sharing of the advisory fees we receive from you. Consultiva and our Investment Advisor Representatives can receive commissions when clients purchase insurance products, such as life insurance, fixed annuities, and/or long-term care. Such commissions are paid to Consultiva and to your Investment Advisor Representative by insurance carriers, not by the client. For additional information about compensation paid to our financial professionals, please see your financial professionals ADV Part 2B – Brochure Supplement.
